Sermon Notes

Mathew 5:27-30
“The Heart Matters 2.0”

This passage urges us to consider not just what we do but why do it; God sees the heart and what goes on in the heart matters to God.

Once again Jesus teaches that while actions are important, it's what's in the heart that truly matters.

We should take sexual immorality seriously because God does: no matter what our culture says, God does have a standard of right and wrong in regard to sexuality.

We need to work not just on our outside actions, which could lead to hypocrisy, but also on our thoughts and attitudes.

In the end, though, this is a reminder that we are saved by grace: thank God.

But I say to you that everyone who looks at a woman with lustful intent has already committed adultery with her in his heart.
