Sermon Notes

“The Dragnet” Matthew 13:47-52

The Parables in Matthew 13 are intended to show us what the Kingdom of God is like. This last parable describes what will happen at the Last Judgment: there will be a separation of the redeemed and the unredeemed into eternal life and eternal punishment.

- 1: The final judgment will involve a thorough separation.
- 2: The final judgement is a certainty.
3. The final judgment is permanent.
4. The end of the unredeemed will be dreadful.

We need to be ready.

We need to warn others with compassion.

So it will be at the close of the age. The angels will come out and separate the evil from the righteous and throw them into the fiery furnace. In that place there will be weeping and gnashing of teeth.

On this day: In 1875, twenty eight Cheyenne warriors were arrested as ringleaders of an uprising, including Oakerhater (O-kuh-ha-tah). They might have rotted in jail except for the concern of Captain Richard H. Pratt. Pratt taught them English and educated them. He saw that Oakerhater was a natural leader and placed him as head of the Indian self-discipline force. Due to Pratt's kindness, Oakerhater and some others converted to Christianity. Four of them decided to study for the ministry. Mrs. Pendleton of Cincinnati paid Oakerhater's tuition. When Oakerhater was baptized in 1878, he took the name David Pendleton Oakerhater, in honor of the woman who paid his way. Oakerhater returned to his people and told them, "You remember when I led you out to war I went first, and what I told you was true. Now I have been away to the East and I have learned about another captain, the Lord Jesus Christ, and he is my leader. He goes first, and all he tells me is true." Until his death on August 31, 1931, Oakerhater worked hard to bring the peace of Christ to his people. He operated schools and missions at great personal cost. Guided by his great captain, he never gave up. One of the government's agents wrote, "...no better example of Christian manhood was to be found." The Indians respected Oakerhater's faith and nicknamed him "God's Warrior." Episcopalians remember him on this day, September 1.
