Sermon Notes

Philip: Head Faith/Heart Faith Matthew 10:3

Philip was one of the apostles who would love living in the Bluegrass as his name means "lover of horses".

Philip clearly was a man of great faith: he followed John the Baptist and he was quick to tell his friend Nathanael that they had found the Messiah.

Jesus even came to Philip: God pursues those who are sincerely seeking Him with their hearts.

However, his head faith and his heart faith did not always match. The accounts we read about Philip showed that he often lacked true faith in the power and identity of Jesus.

Philip serves as a warning to those of us in the church: it's easy to say we believe in Jesus and to believe in Him with our heads, but do our lives truly show that we have faith in Jesus' power and care?

If we say we believe in Jesus, our lives should reflect that faith.

But be doers of the word, and not hearers only, deceiving yourselves.
-James 1:22 (ESV)
